Items must be returned within one year of purchase, under original conditions, in order to benefit from an exchange or refund. Refunds are typically displayed on the statement 1-2 business days after the refund starts. Please note that returns or exchanges must be started within one year of purchase in order to benefit. Processing time Our logistics team is committed to ensuring that you get your BreakingT shirts as quickly as possible. Please be aware that we only operate from our warehouse during federal business days. This means that if you ordered a t-shirt on Thursdays or Fridays, it is possible that your package cannot be shipped until the following week. If you have any questions about the status of your order, we are here to help you; please leave us a line at the contact@breakingt.com and we will be back with you within 24 hours. Shipping and tracking orders We ship all orders from our headquarters in Washington, DC through the U.S. Postal Service. You will receive an email confirmation as soon as your order is processed and another confirmation by email when your order is marked for shipping. The U.S. Postal Service provides a tracking number so you can keep an eye on the progress of your order delivery. When we print your shipping label, you'll receive an email with the tracking number, and you can track your package here: . Please wait 24 hours for the tracking link update. For most international orders, the U.S. Postal Service does not track across the U.S. border. We do not currently offer updates for night or express shipping. For lost or stolen orders in transit, please contact us to arrange the return. When customs clearance procedures are required, it can sometimes cause delays beyond our original delivery estimates for international orders. If you have any questions about the status of your order, use the contact form and provide the order number. International orders and customs Our parcels usually sail through customs, but sometimes they can be hung up at the border. Unfortunately, we don't have control over how long a package remains in customs, but we typically see orders issued within a week for delivery. The reasons for this delay vary, but further inspection of the package is often necessary and/or an import tax needs to be assessed. on importation. keep in mind that orders shipped outside the United States may be subject to additional import taxes, which are imposed once a shipment reaches the recipient's country in order to release the package. As customs clearance fees differ greatly from country to country (we've seen them up to $4 CAD and up to £15 GBP), unfortunately we can't predict what those costs will be. These fees are separate (and not dependent) from the U.S. Postal Service shipping fees paid to BreakingT to ship your order. Customers are responsible for paying any additional customs fees collected from the country of destination. Customs policies vary greatly from country to country; we recommend contacting your local customs office for more information before placing your order. Do you still have a question? No problem! Leave us a line at any time contact@breakingt.com. We have a customer support team dedicated to responding to your emails and we will be sure to respond within 24 hours. In collaboration with UNINTERRUPTED, Rapinoe and Bird dedicated the hoodie to LGBTQ+ youth and the memory of Nigel Shelby, a gay Alabama teenager who died a suicide in 2019. The advantages of the hoodie went to support the nonprofit Athletes 4 Impact. On the subject of Leafs bubble fashion, it's not quite comparable to Auston Matthews' $3,000 in form. ht Twitter/NHLHubsLife Source: UNINTERRUPTED / Uninterrupted If you didn't know, LeBron James' media company, It's continuously has a fire merchandising offer. Her latest collection celebrates Pride Month with the help of Megan Rapinoe and Sue Byrd. The power couple, with the help of Athletes For Impact, created a pair of hoodies printed in honor of the celebration. Source: UNINTERRUPTED / Uninterrupted The three Nike-branded hoodies –in heather grey, light brown and sky blue– feature a Flag of Pride, a lambda symbol - which began as a symbol of the New York chapter of the Gay Activists Alliance of the 1970s - and text that reads: Love is compassion / Love is bold / Love is unique / Love is strong / Love is freedom / Love is uninterrupted. The left sleeve of each hoodie contains a message to Nigel Shelby, a 15-year-old who died a suicide in April after being bullied for his orientation at Huntsville High School in Alabama. You can cope with the hoodie starting June 28 for $125 on the UNINTERRUPTED webstore with 20% of the proceeds going to LGBTQIA+ organizations. This is a collaboration between our teams, @uninterrupted and @cactusjack, to give you something special to mark this incredible result. It's falling right now only available until Sunday. All net proceeds go to charity. I love you guys. Enjoy this 🏀🏀🏀. LeBron wrote before the 72-hour sale of the tee.
